Life Begins In Your Home Garden

The walk to your home always feels special,
a place which understands you like no other.

A garden that soaks in your energy with a scent of its own...

SMERA Gardens

'Smera', a name that radiates the joy of shared smiles. A homely warmth where you can bask in the positivity of nature, here's your simple reminder of cherished togetherness.

An Evolved Lifestyle Approach
Perfect for Families

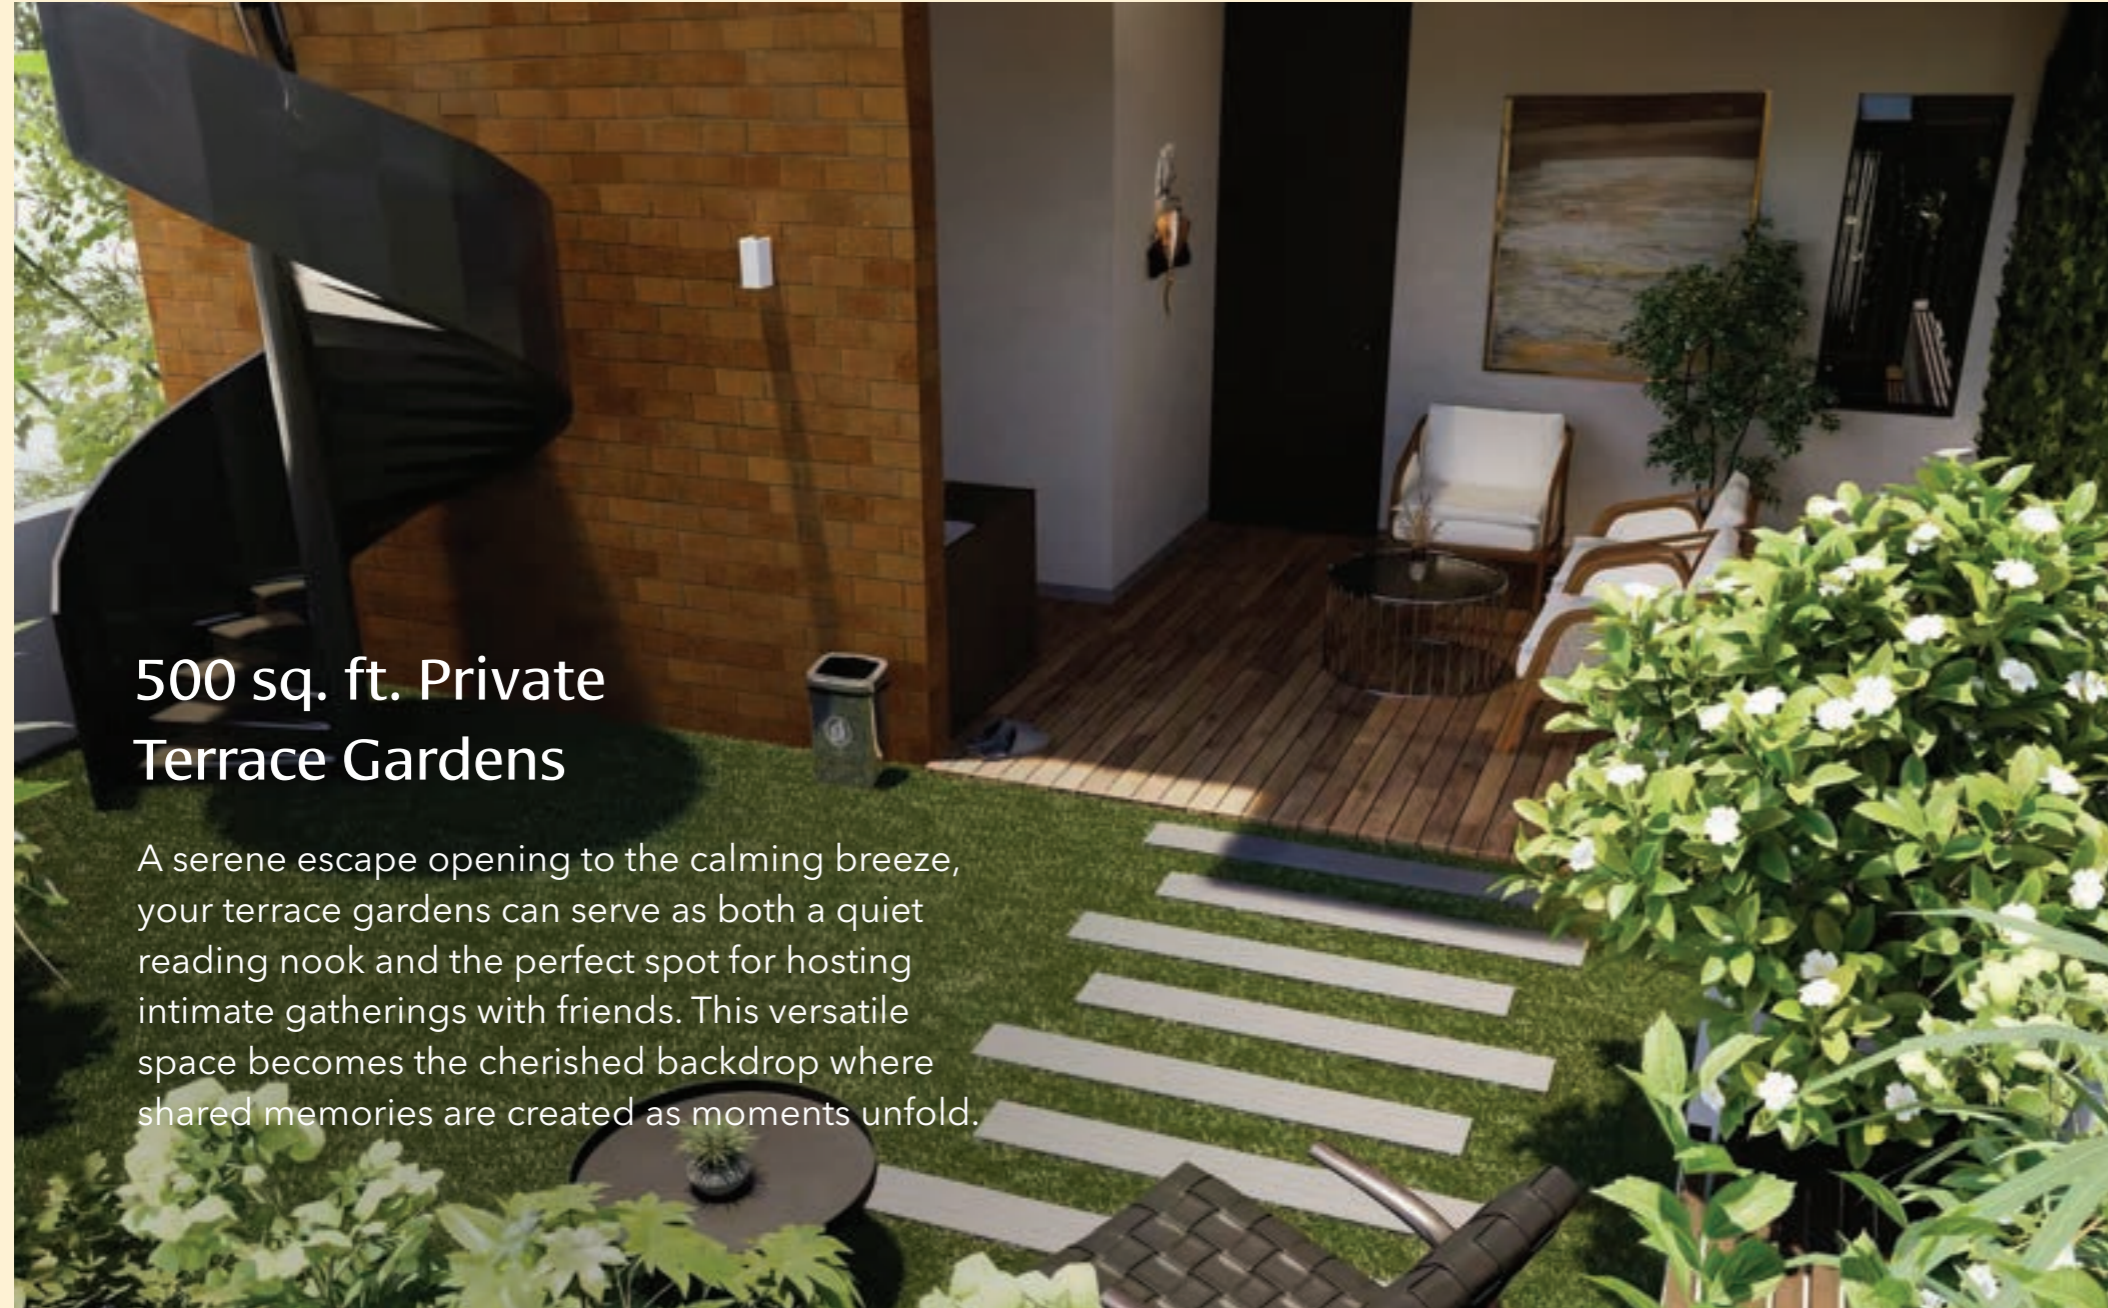

MEET LUXURY PRIVATE GARDEN HOMES

When asked why we chose to plant private backyards for each of the 185 villa units at Smera Gardens, our answer is simple. We believe in designing homes that do more than meet your immediate needs. We enrich lifestyles with homes that inspire positivity and productivity every day.

A Way of Life for Tree Lovers

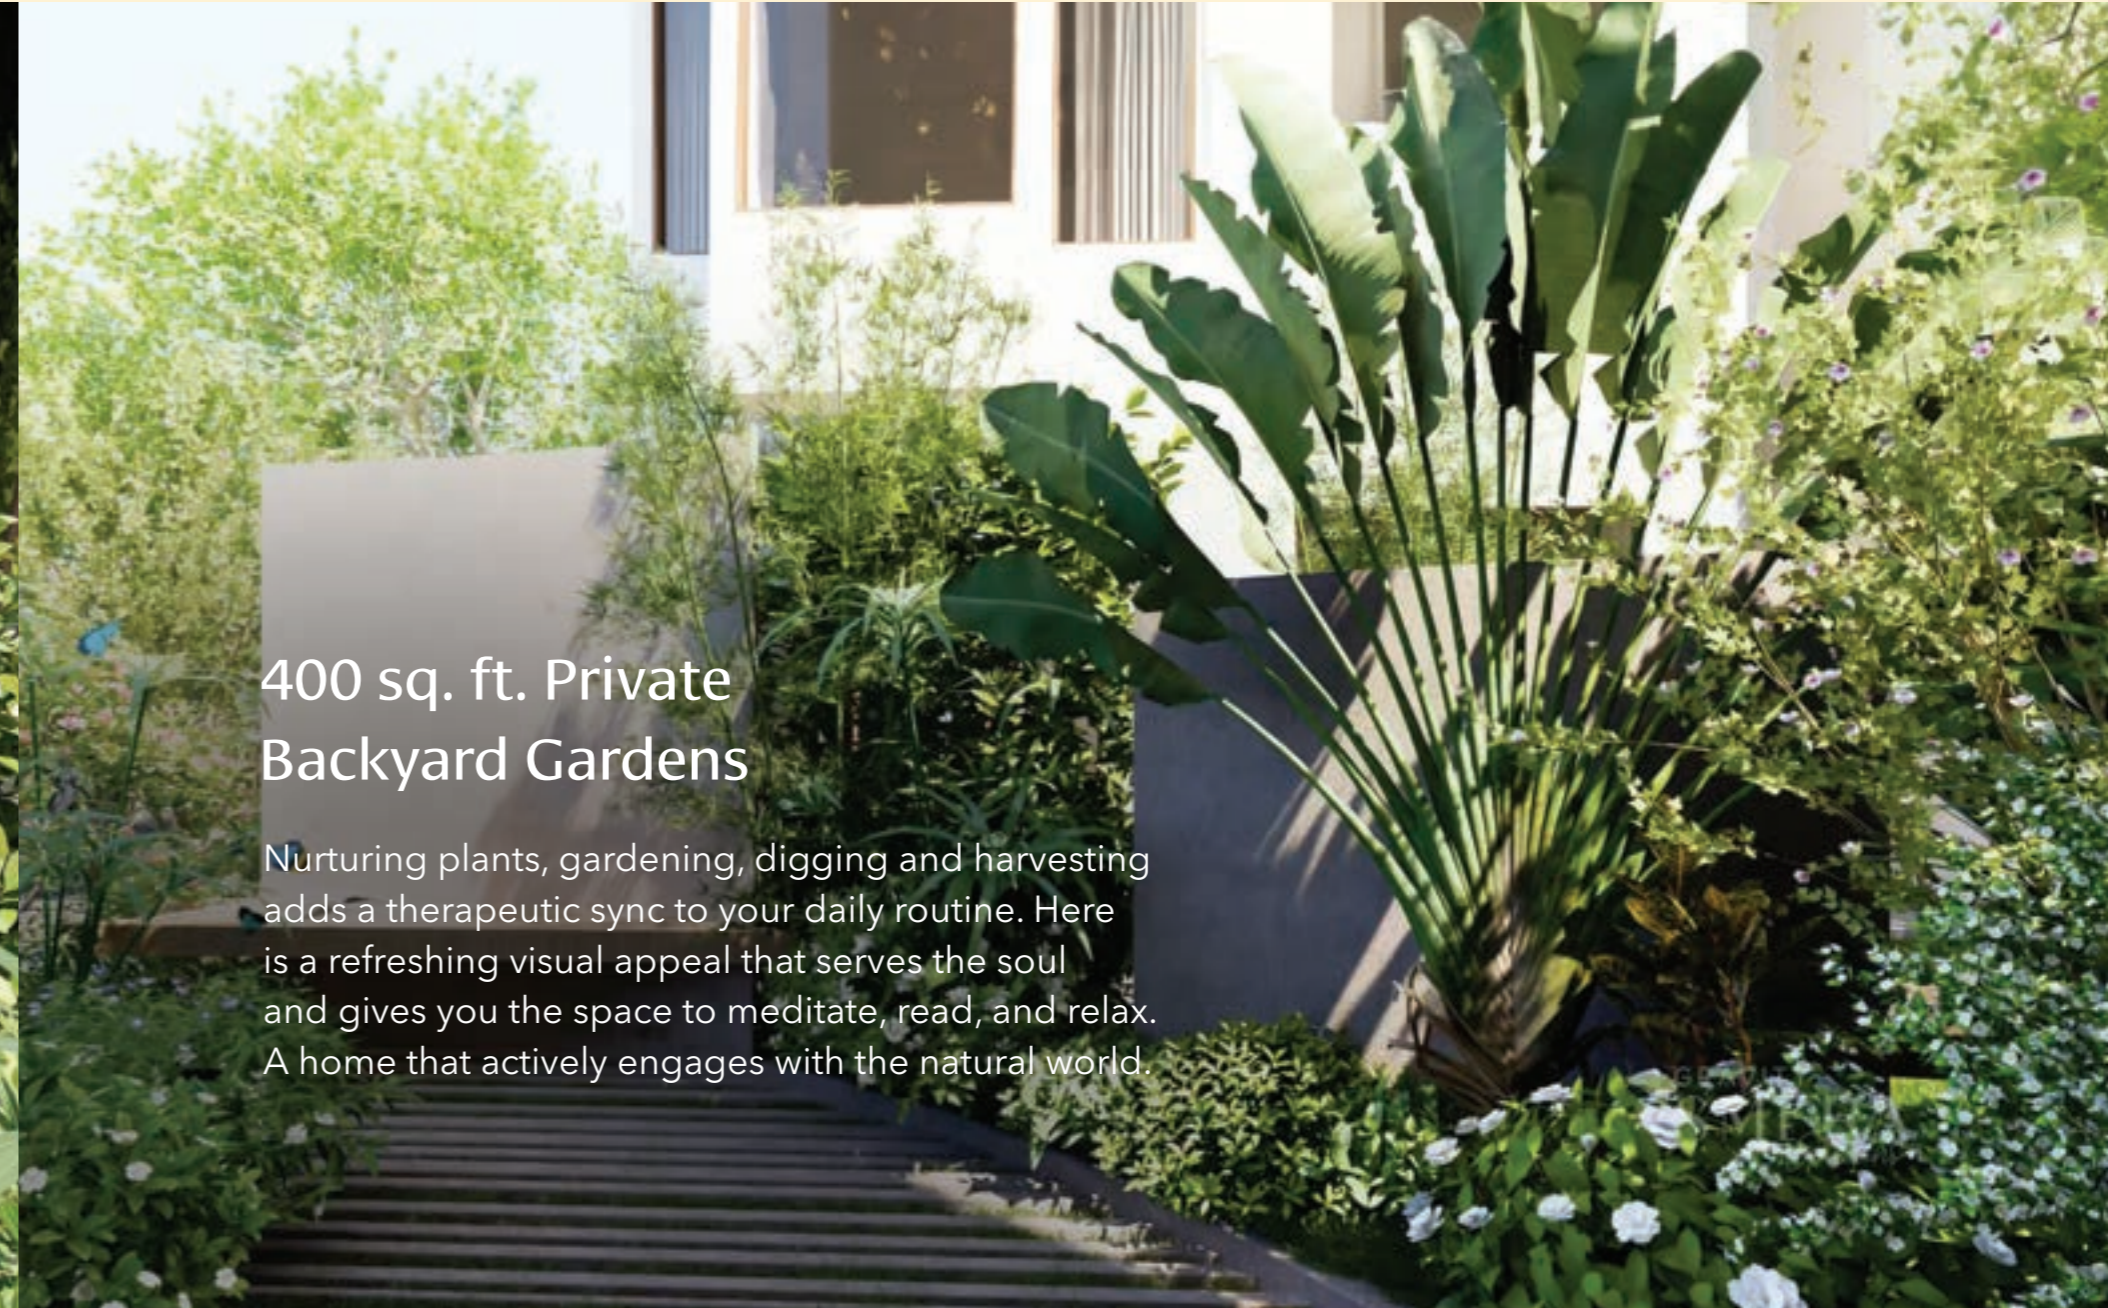

Miyawaki Forest-Themed Entrance Stretch

A fast-growing and self-sustaining model of close spacing native species and diverse tree variety, the Miyawaki is a Japanese methodology that provides a breathtaking forest canopy to your entrance designed for urban greening and ecological restoration with high carbon capture for fresh air.

500 sq. ft. Private Terrace Gardens

A serene escape opening to the calming breeze, your terrace gardens can serve as both a quiet reading nook and the perfect spot for hosting intimate gatherings with friends. This versatile space becomes the cherished backdrop where shared memories are created as moments unfold.

400 sq. ft. Private Backyard Gardens

Nurturing plants, gardening, digging and harvesting adds a therapeutic sync to your daily routine. Here is a refreshing visual appeal that serves the soul and gives you the space to meditate, read, and relax. A home that actively engages with the natural world.

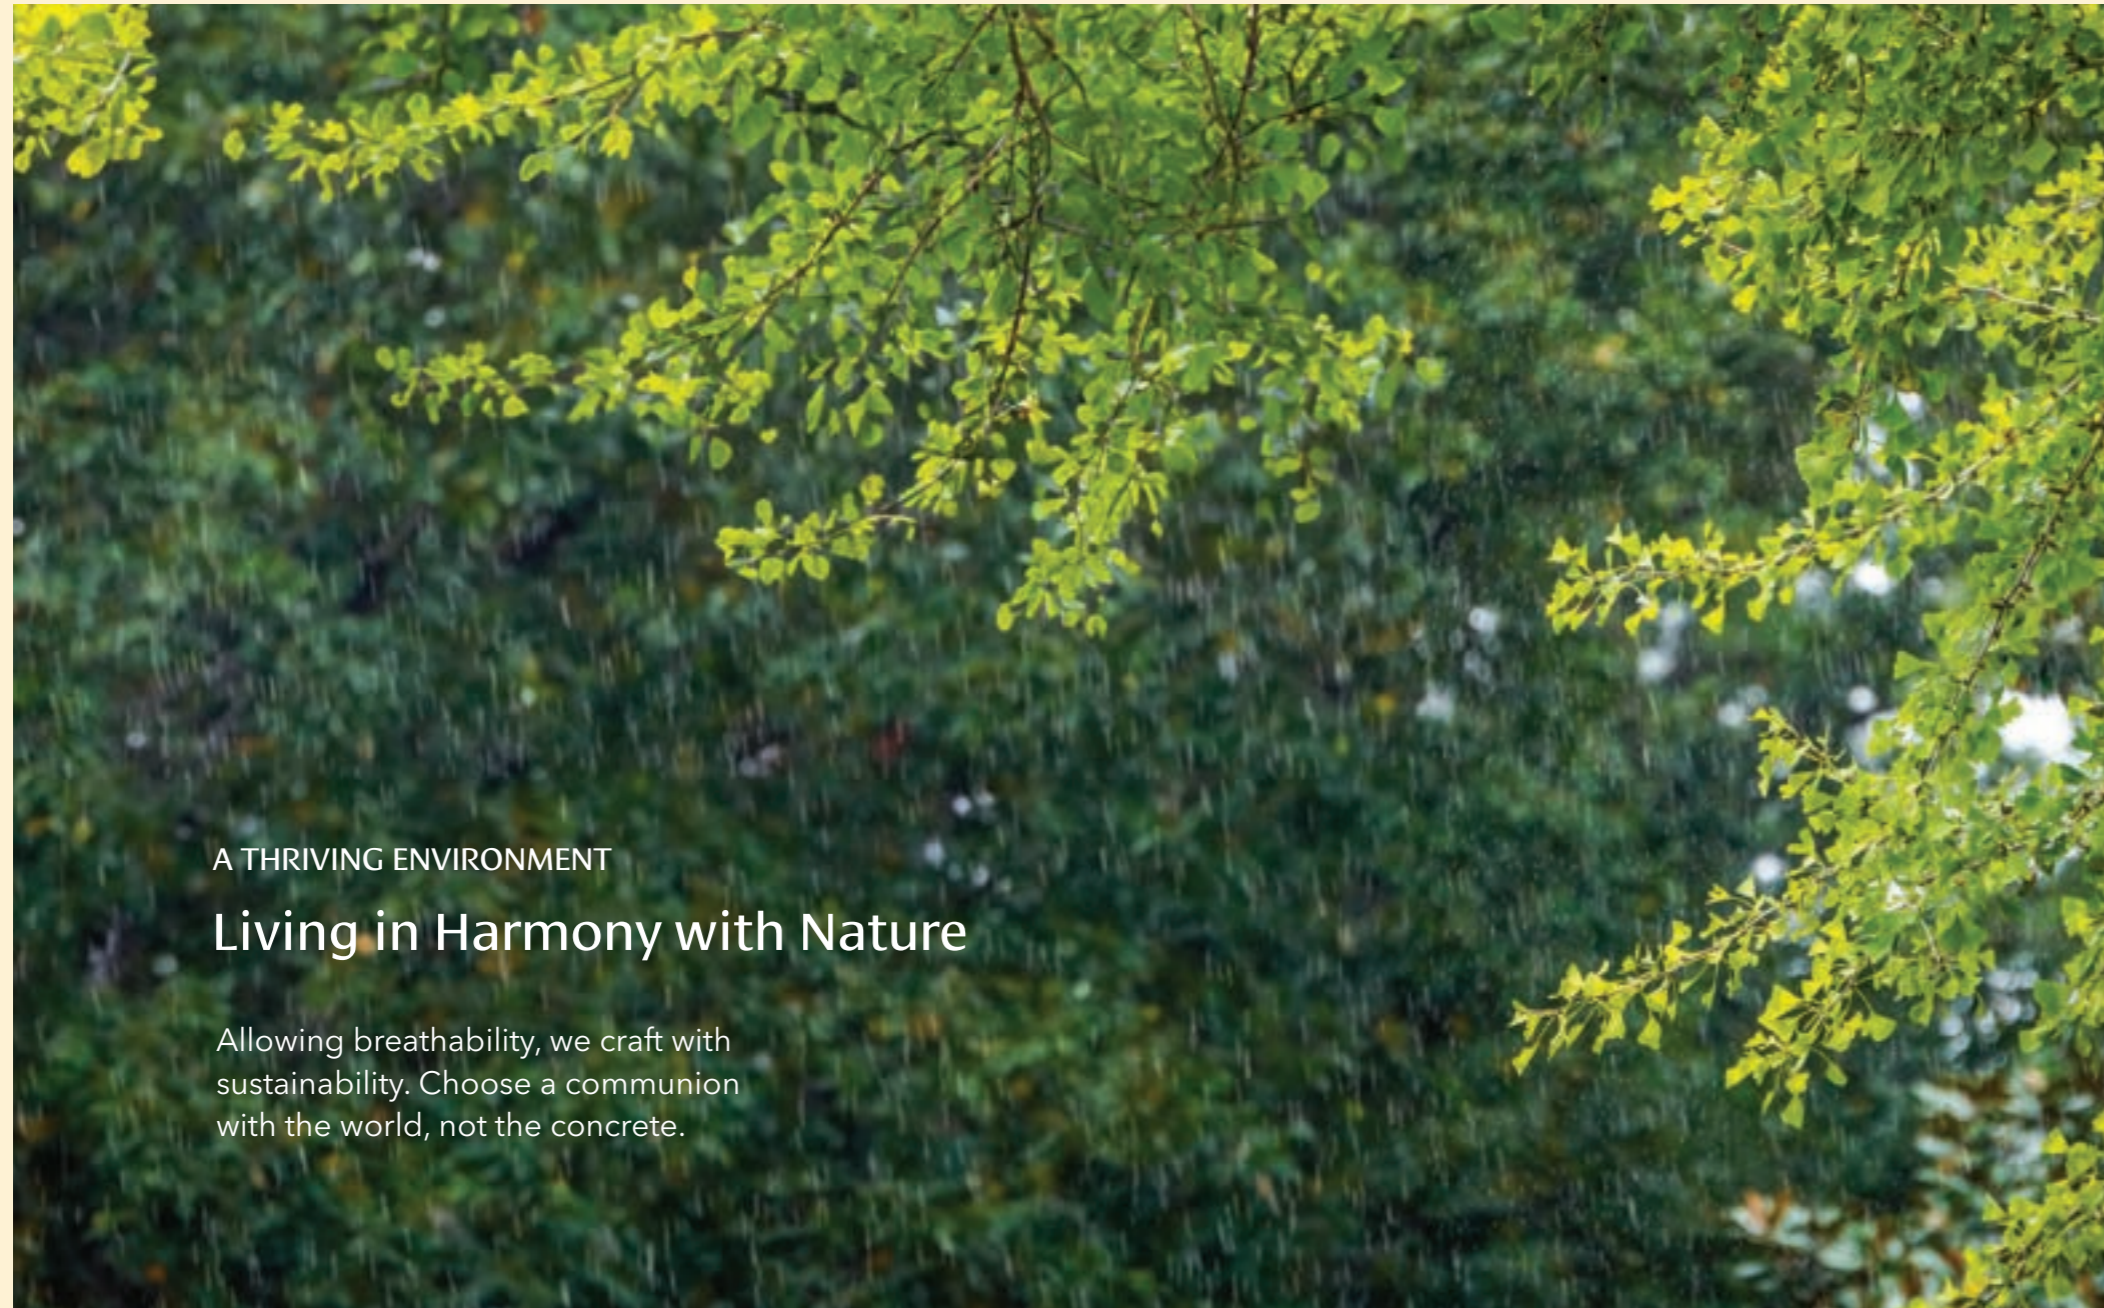

The Core of Life with Every Project

PEOPLE & TOGETHERNESS

Community Lifestyles

With dedicated green spaces designed to aid your daily fitness routines, here's an opportunity to connect over your evening cup of chai and kaapi. Join us as we revive the old-world charm of building meaningful connections with your community.

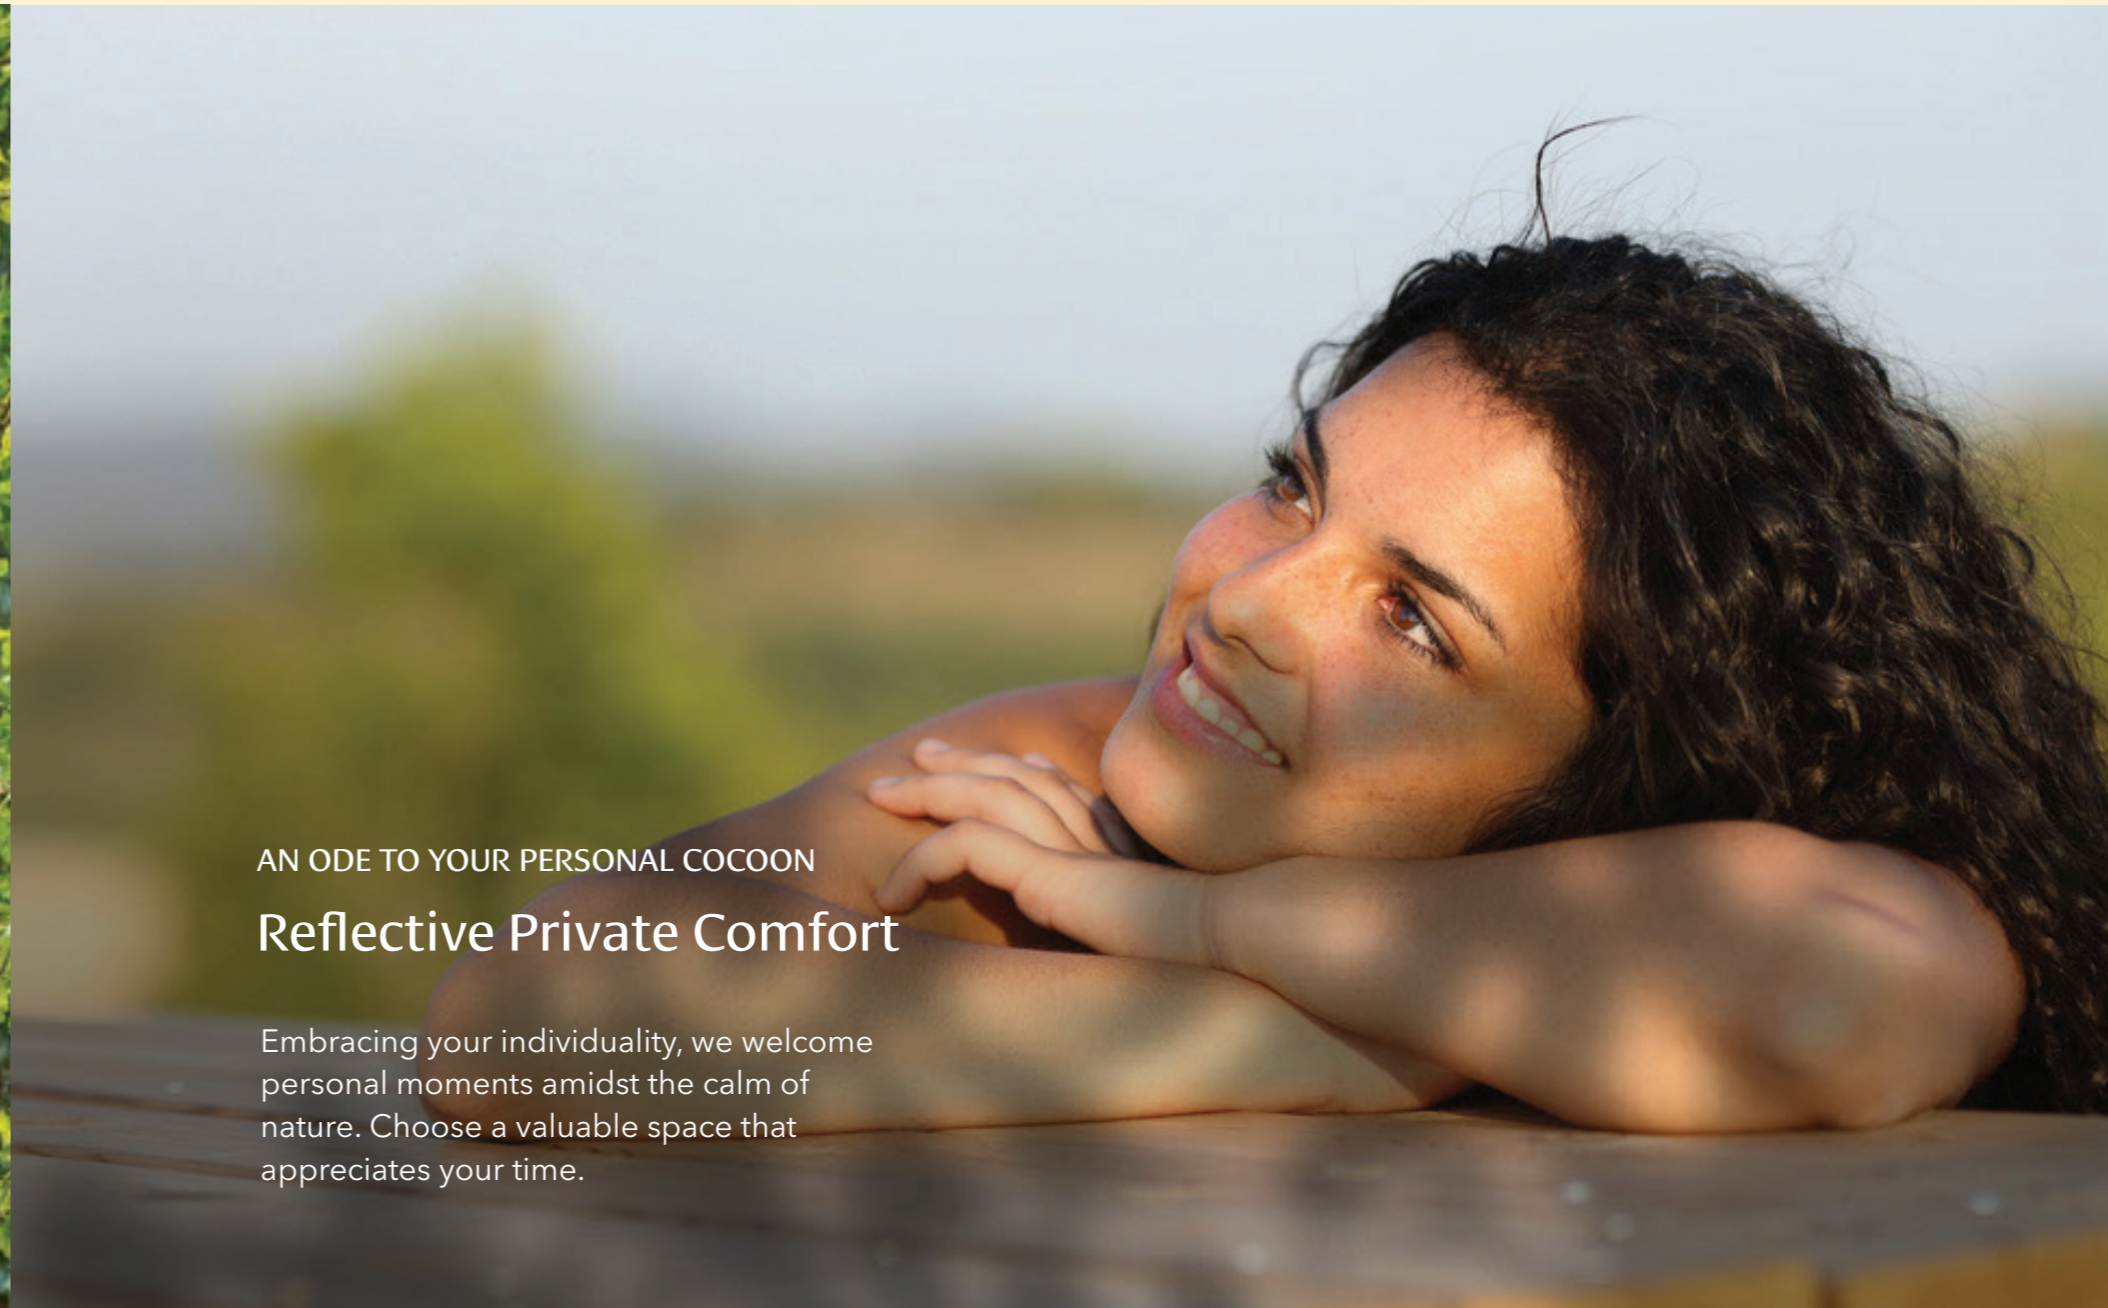

A THRIVING ENVIRONMENT

Living in Harmony with Nature

Allowing breathability, we craft with sustainability. Choose a communion with the world, not the concrete.

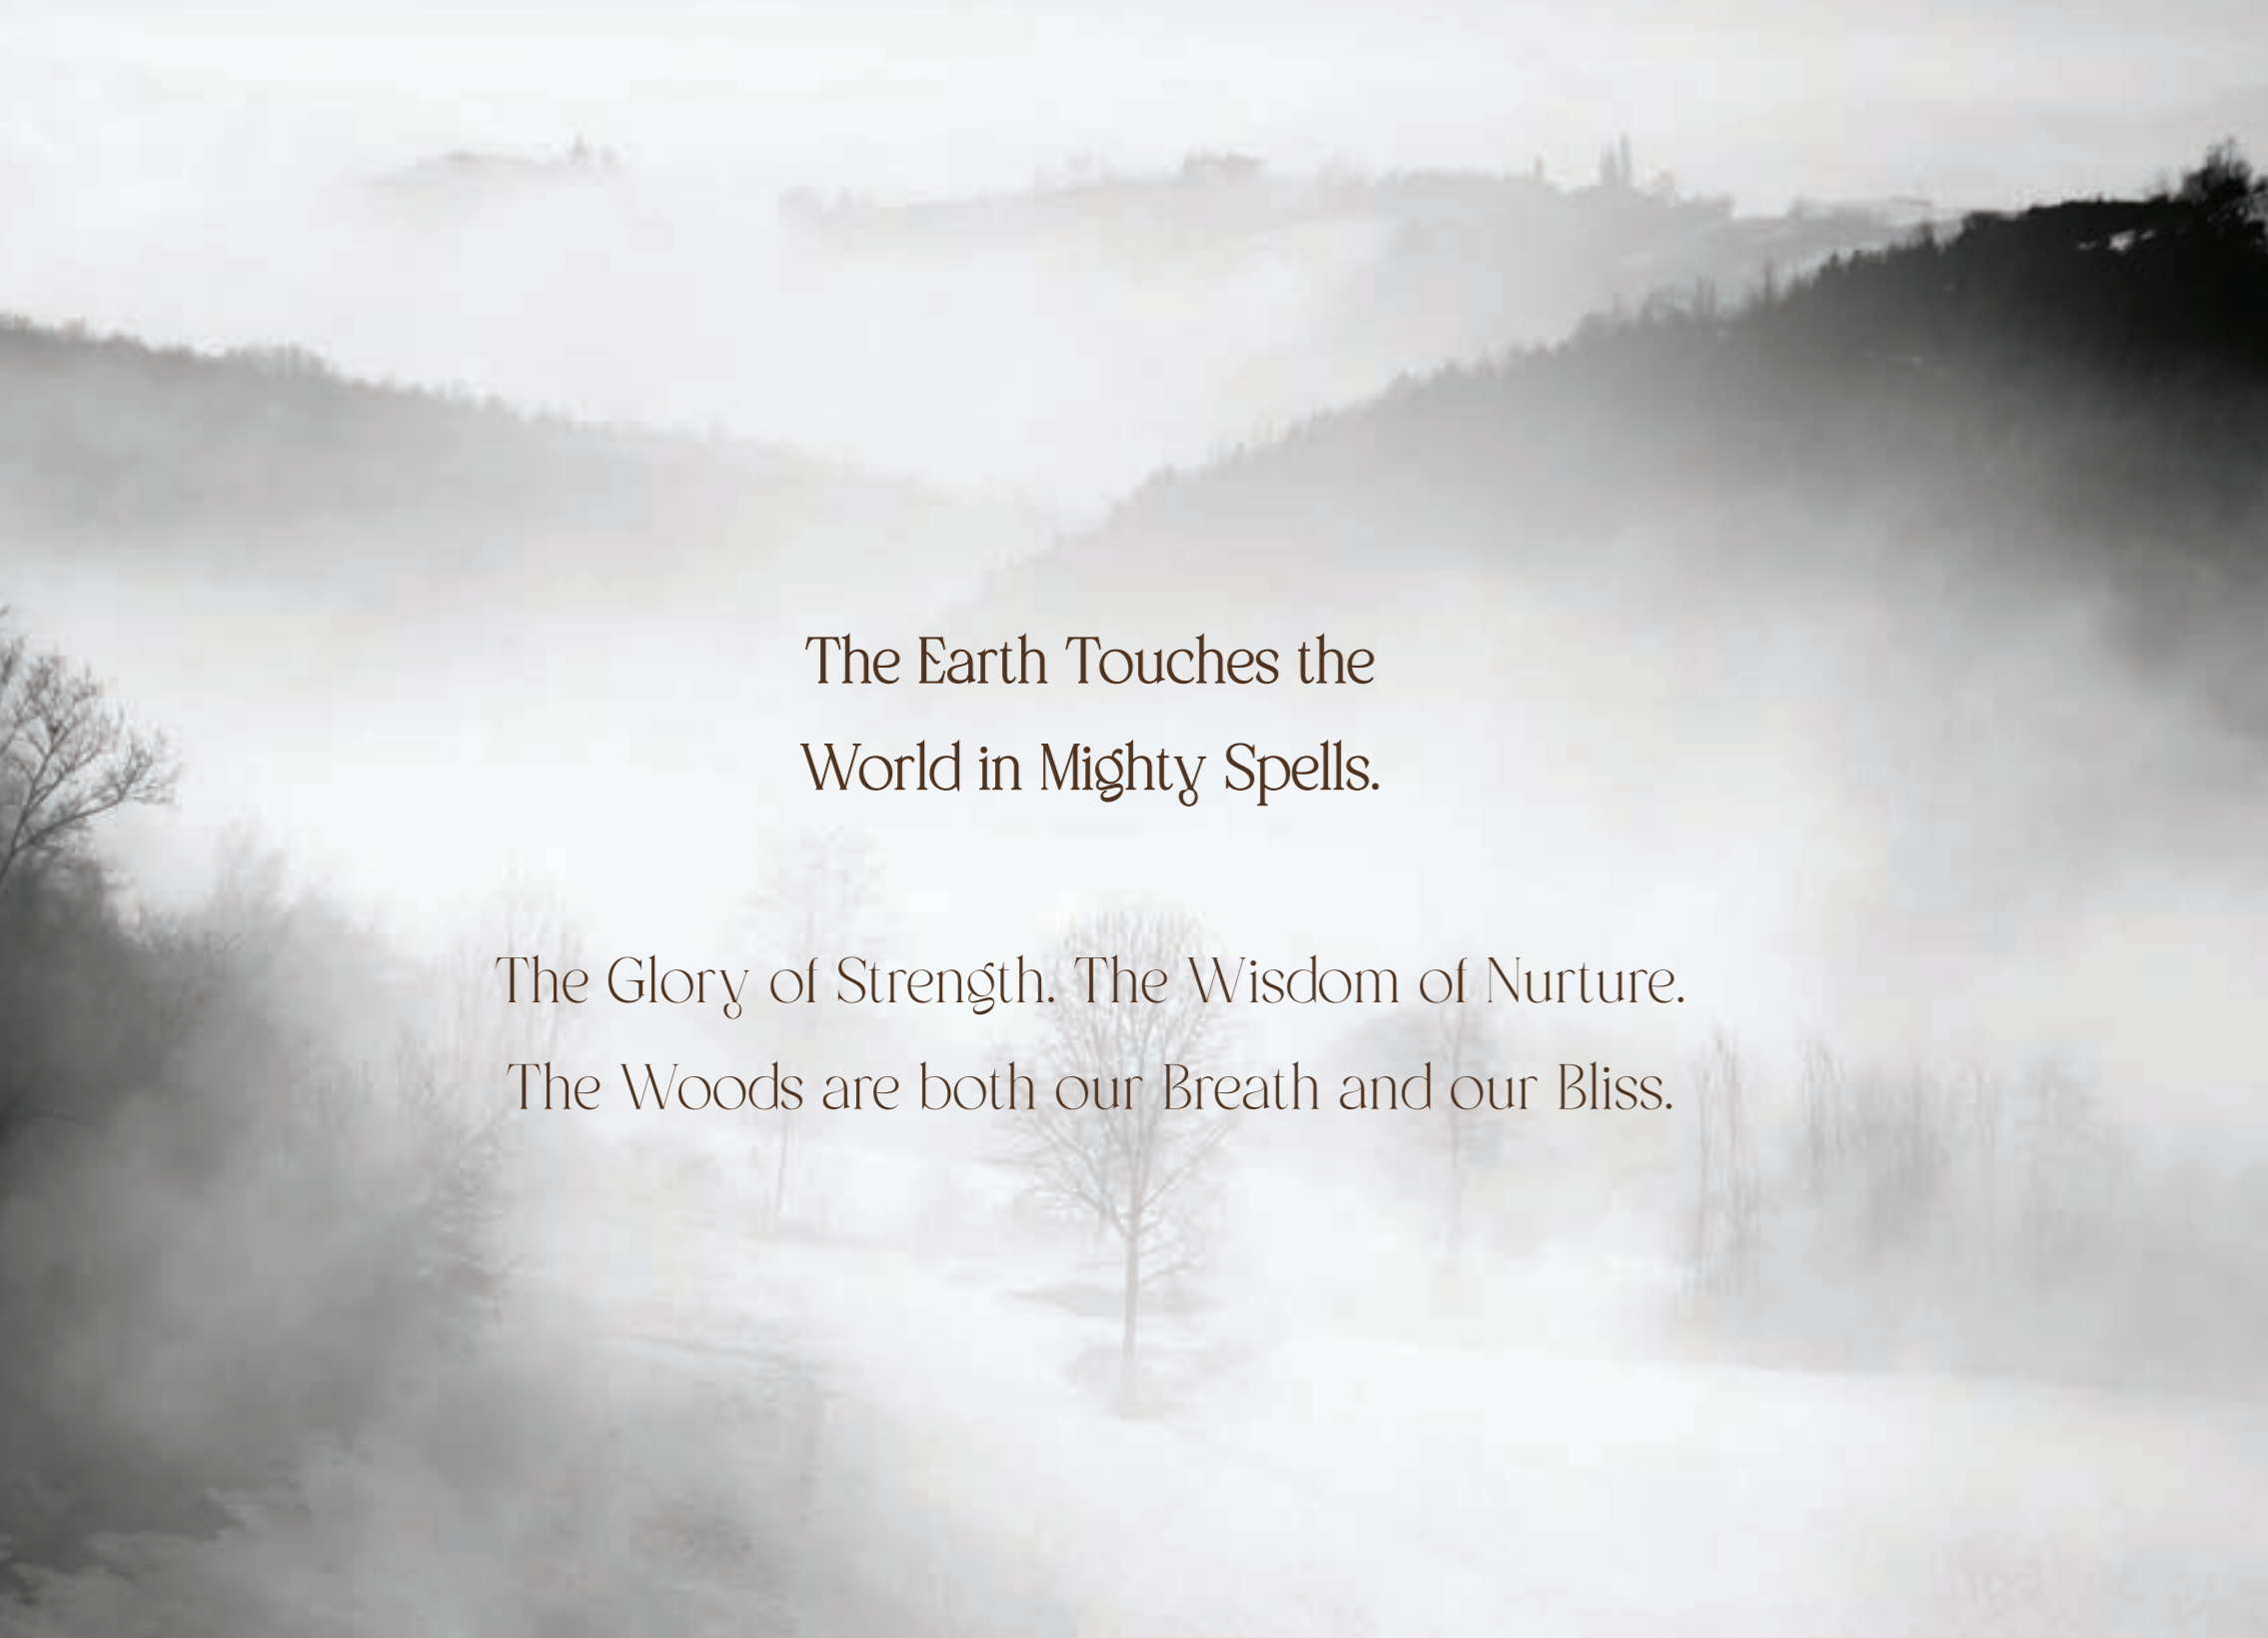

AN ODE TO YOUR PERSONAL COCOON

Reflective Private Comfort

Embracing your individuality, we welcome personal moments amidst the calm of nature. Choose a valuable space that appreciates your time.

Approaching Materiality with Sustainability

The Earth Touches the World in Mighty Spells.

The Glory of Strength. The Wisdom of Nurture.
The Woods are both our Breath and our Bliss.

tender, gentle, barefoot little rebels,
splashing rain and spilling stories,
rows of plates full of delicacies
and a backyard as big as grandma's heart, all brought back to the city, and to your home because life really does begin in your home garden.

PRIME LOCATION

PART OF ATTIBELE & CHANDAPURA INDUSTRIAL AREA

At first, we had our own share of sceptical moments, planning a project in this highly desirable site. We wanted to discover what it was that we could offer you distinctively.

An opportunity to end the hassle for people looking forward to a new home without limiting their dreams, instead giving them both a tranquil spot for personal comfort and ambient comfort for families.
